

2021 Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society Law Day: Official Contest Rules

$1,000 AWARDS AND WINNERS PRESENT TO CONNECTICUT SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

Contest Prizes: One winner for each category will receive a cash award of $1,000 (to an individual or a team), and will present to the Chief Justice and the Associate Justices of the Connecticut Supreme Court at the Connecticut Supreme Court Virtual Law Day Ceremony on May 3, 2021. Entry Deadline: April 9, 2021

Contest Theme:

Background: The Law Day Contest asks participants to explore the Rule of Law in the United States and Connecticut. As stated by the American Bar Association: The 2021 Law Day theme is “Advancing the Rule of Law, Now.” As explained by the ABA: “The rule of law is the bedrock of American rights and liberties-in times of calm and unrest alike. The 2021 Law Day theme - Advancing the Rule of Law, Now - reminds all of us that we the people share the responsibility to promote the rule of law, defend liberty, and pursue justice.”

For more information on the Law Day theme, please see the following website: https://www.americanbar.org/groups/public_education/law-day/.

Contest Focus: The Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society’s Law Day competition focuses on this theme and asks students to submit either an (1) essay or (2) an art piece that discusses or incorporates the 2021 Law Day theme.

Qualified Participants: The Law Day Contest is open to students, student groups, and classes attending a public or private high school, or being home schooled, within Connecticut and in grades 9-12 or the equivalent.

Group Submissions: Two or more Qualified Participants may submit a group entry. Qualified Participants need not be from the same school. However, all students must meet Contest Eligibility Requirements and must complete the Law Day Contest Entry Form with Parental Permission.

Hand delivery: 90 Gillett St., Hartford, CT 06105, Monday – Friday, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.

3. To be eligible for prizes, all entries must be received by April 9, 2021.

Contest Description:

1. Selection of winners will be based on originality, quality, creativity and clarity of expression related to the 2021 Law Day theme, and overall quality.
2. The Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society Law Day Contest Committee will select no more than one winner for each of the two categories from among the Eligible Entries that meet minimum quality standards and best reflect the theme. Winners will be contacted by email or phone and their names and essays or photos of their artwork will be posted on the Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society website.
3. By completing and signing the Entry Form, each Participant assents to the republication, reproduction, or any other use of the submissions and the likenesses and personas contained therein by the Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society. Each Law Day

Contest Entry Form must certify the submission is the original work of the Qualified Participant(s). Submissions are subject to verification for compliance with these Rules. Qualified Participants are not limited to one entry, but will only be eligible to win one prize.

Privacy: Any and all names, contact information, and related information should be submitted only on the Entry Form. Names, contact information, or any other personally identifiable information should not be included within the submission (for example, on a “credit roll”), as the submitted pieces may be displayed on publicly accessible websites. If personally identifiable information is presented within the submission, the Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society may void or deem the submission ineligible.

All submissions must be the original work of the participants (for purposes of these rules, “participant(s)” mean the parent or guardian signing the entry form if applicable and the student.

Participants must not have granted any other person or entity prior right to use the piece. Submissions will not be accepted or eligible if they include any content that contains or appears to contain:

1. Profane, obscene, or inappropriate language, contest or material or gratuitous violence.
2. Endorses, encourages, or condones drug use, underage drinking, alcohol abuse or other illegal activity.
3. Any express or implied commercial endorsement.
4. Any derogatory characterization of any person or group based on age, race, color, gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, marital status, mental or physical disability, citizenship, creed, national origin, physical appearance, political affiliation, union membership, or other unethical or unlawful factors.
5. By submitting entries, participants warrant that the contents of the submitted piece do not infringe on any copyright owned by another, and/or that the content of the piece is within the bounds of the fair use doctrine. Participants also confirm that to the best of their knowledge, any statements made in the submitted piece are true and do not violate or infringe on the rights of third parties.

Conditions of Participation:

1. By entering, participants agree to defend and indemnify sponsor(s) and sponsor's principals, subsidiaries, affiliates, directors, officers, employees, members, and agents from any and all liability for any injuries, loss, or damage of any kind arising from or in connection with the contest or as a result of receiving participants’ submissions and/or misuse of any prize.

2. Each participant agrees that the sponsor(s) may retain a copy of the submission and also consents, approves and authorizes the sponsor the right to use, broadcast, webcast, or otherwise exhibit or display the submitted pieces.
3. Each participant grants the sponsor(s) the unqualified right to use his or her name and submission entries, in connection with promoting or marketing the contest or its theme, and future contests, materials or as the sponsor(s) determine.
4. The rights described in these official rules begin immediately upon submission.
5. The sponsor has no obligation to post or display any submitted piece and may in its absolute discretion, remove any submitted pieces at any time.
6. The participant releases the sponsor and sponsor's principals, subsidiaries, affiliates, directors, officers, employees, members, and agents from any and all claims by third parties or the participant in connection with the submitted piece.

General Conditions:

1. The Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society is and shall be the final arbiter of the contest and applicability of these rules.
2. The sponsor reserves the right to void entries it deems associated with any form of tampering.
3. Should technical or other difficulties arise that compromise the integrity of the contest, the sponsor may cancel, modify or suspend the contest without notice. In that case, the sponsor reserves the right to award the prizes from eligible entries received before the cancellation.
4. The sponsor is not responsible for any technical malfunction or service outage related to the contest.
